CLIP 01 - H1-1 - HOOK 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : I'm Amlodipine. 60 million prescriptions a year.

VISUEL (brief) : The orange Amlodipine pill bottle character stands in a dark, gritty pharmaceutical factory. Green monitor screens glow behind him and loose white pills are scattered on the wet floor. He talks straight to camera with a big evil grin and spreads his gloved hands like he's proud.

En français : Il se présente, fier, dans l'usine sombre.

CLIP 02 - H1-2 - HOOK 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : And not one of them fixes why your blood pressure is high.

VISUEL (brief) : Amlodipine is inside a blood vessel. He grips the pink vessel walls on both sides with his black gloves and pulls them apart. Dark red blood drips down around his boots, and he laughs.

En français : Il écarte les parois du vaisseau, il rit.

CLIP 03 - H2-1 - HOOK 2 - image validée

VO (brief) : I'm Amlodipine.

VISUEL (brief) : Amlodipine stands in the dark pharmaceutical factory, with green monitors glowing behind him and loose white pills on the wet floor. He grins at the camera and points at himself with his thumb.

En français : Usine, il se montre avec le pouce.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 04 - H2-2 - HOOK 2 - image validée

VO (brief) : You've taken me every morning for years.

VISUEL (brief) : A bright kitchen in the morning. The man sits at the table in a gray T-shirt with a glass of water and a 7-day plastic pill organizer in front of him. Amlodipine stands on the table next to the organizer, tapping it with one gloved finger and smirking at the man.

En français : Cuisine, il tapote le pilulier.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 05 - H2-3 - HOOK 2 - image validée

VO (brief) : And your numbers still aren't where your doctor wants them.

VISUEL (brief) : Same kitchen. The man has a home blood pressure cuff on his upper arm and stares at the monitor, frowning. The screen shows a high reading in red: 148/92.
Amlodipine leans on the monitor with his elbow, laughing.

En français : Tensiomètre 148/92, il rit accoudé.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 06 - H3-1 - HOOK 3 - image validée

VO (brief) : I'm Amlodipine.

VISUEL (brief) : Amlodipine stands in the dark pharmaceutical factory, with green monitors glowing behind him and loose white pills on the wet floor. He grins at the camera and points at himself with his thumb.

En français : Usine, il se montre avec le pouce.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 07 - H3-2 - HOOK 3 - image validée

VO (brief) : Those swollen ankles you've been blaming on getting older?

VISUEL (brief) : A cozy living room. The man sits in a beige armchair in a gray T-shirt and jeans rolled up to mid-shin, barefoot. He leans forward, looking down at his left ankle, which is visibly puffy, with a deep red dent where his sock was.

En français : Salon, l'homme regarde sa cheville gonflée.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 08 - H3-3 - HOOK 3 - image validée

VO (brief) : That's me.

VISUEL (brief) : Same shot. Amlodipine pops up from behind the man's swollen ankle with small flames coming off his body. He points his thumb at himself, grinning.

En français : Amlodipine surgit, flammes sur lui.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 09 - HO1 - HOLD 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : Want to know what I actually do to you?

VISUEL (brief) : Inside a narrow artery with lumpy yellow fat deposits stuck to the walls. Amlodipine stands in the middle, leans toward the camera and smirks.

En français : Artère grasse, il se penche et ricane.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 10 - HO2 - HOLD 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : Stick around.

VISUEL (brief) : Same shot. Amlodipine waves the camera toward him with one finger.

En français : Il fait signe d'approcher.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 11 - HO3 - HOLD 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : Your swollen ankles?

VISUEL (brief) : The living room. The man sits in a beige armchair, barefoot, with his left ankle visibly puffy and swollen. Amlodipine stands next to the swollen foot with small flames coming off his body, pointing at the ankle and laughing.

En français : Il pointe la cheville et rit, en flammes.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 12 - HO4 - HOLD 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : That's not aging.

VISUEL (brief) : A wider shot of the living room, with bookshelves and a lamp. The man now sits in a plaid armchair looking worried. Amlodipine stands on the floor beside the chair, shaking his head at the camera.

En français : Plan large, fauteuil écossais, il secoue la tête.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 13 - HO5 - HOLD 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : I can force your blood vessels open so wide that fluid leaks out...

VISUEL (brief) : Inside a large blood vessel. Amlodipine grabs a cracked, torn section of the vessel wall with both hands and rips it wider. White cloudy fluid seeps out through the cracks like smoke.

En français : Il déchire la paroi, liquide blanc.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 14 - HO6 - HOLD 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : ...and pools in your ankles.

VISUEL (brief) : Close-up of the man's bare feet resting on a navy blue blanket on his bed. His left ankle is swollen and shiny. Amlodipine leans his whole body against the swollen ankle like he's leaning on a wall.

En français : Pieds sur couverture bleue, il s'appuie.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 15 - HO7 - HOLD 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : And it's got nowhere to drain.

VISUEL (brief) : Same shot. Amlodipine pokes the swollen ankle with one gloved finger. The skin dents in and stays dented.

En français : Il appuie, la peau reste creusée.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 16 - HO8 - HOLD 1 - image validée

VO (brief) : Congratulations.

VISUEL (brief) : Back in the dark pharmaceutical factory. Amlodipine is now fully on fire, flames all around his body, with a huge sarcastic grin. He slowly claps his gloved hands.

En français : Tout en feu, il applaudit lentement.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 17 - N1 - NITRO+ - image validée

VO (brief) : Hi, I'm Nitro Plus 3-in-1.

VISUEL (brief) : The red Nitro+ bottle character walks toward the camera through a tunnel-shaped blood vessel glowing warm gold. She smiles and waves.

En français : Tunnel doré, il salue.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 18 - N2 - NITRO+ - image validée

VO (brief) : And I actually fix the reason your blood pressure is high.

VISUEL (brief) : Same golden tunnel, with red blood cells flowing smoothly past the Nitro+ bottle. The tunnel walls gently widen and relax on their own around her. Nothing is touching them.

En français : Le vaisseau passe d'étroit à large autour de lui.

DERNIERE IMAGE

CLIP 19 - N3 - NITRO+ - image validée

VO (brief) : But be careful.

VISUEL (brief) : The Nitro+ bottle stands inside a blood vessel glowing orange, with red blood cells floating around her. She raises one hand like a warning and makes a serious face.

En français : Main levée, visage sérieux.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

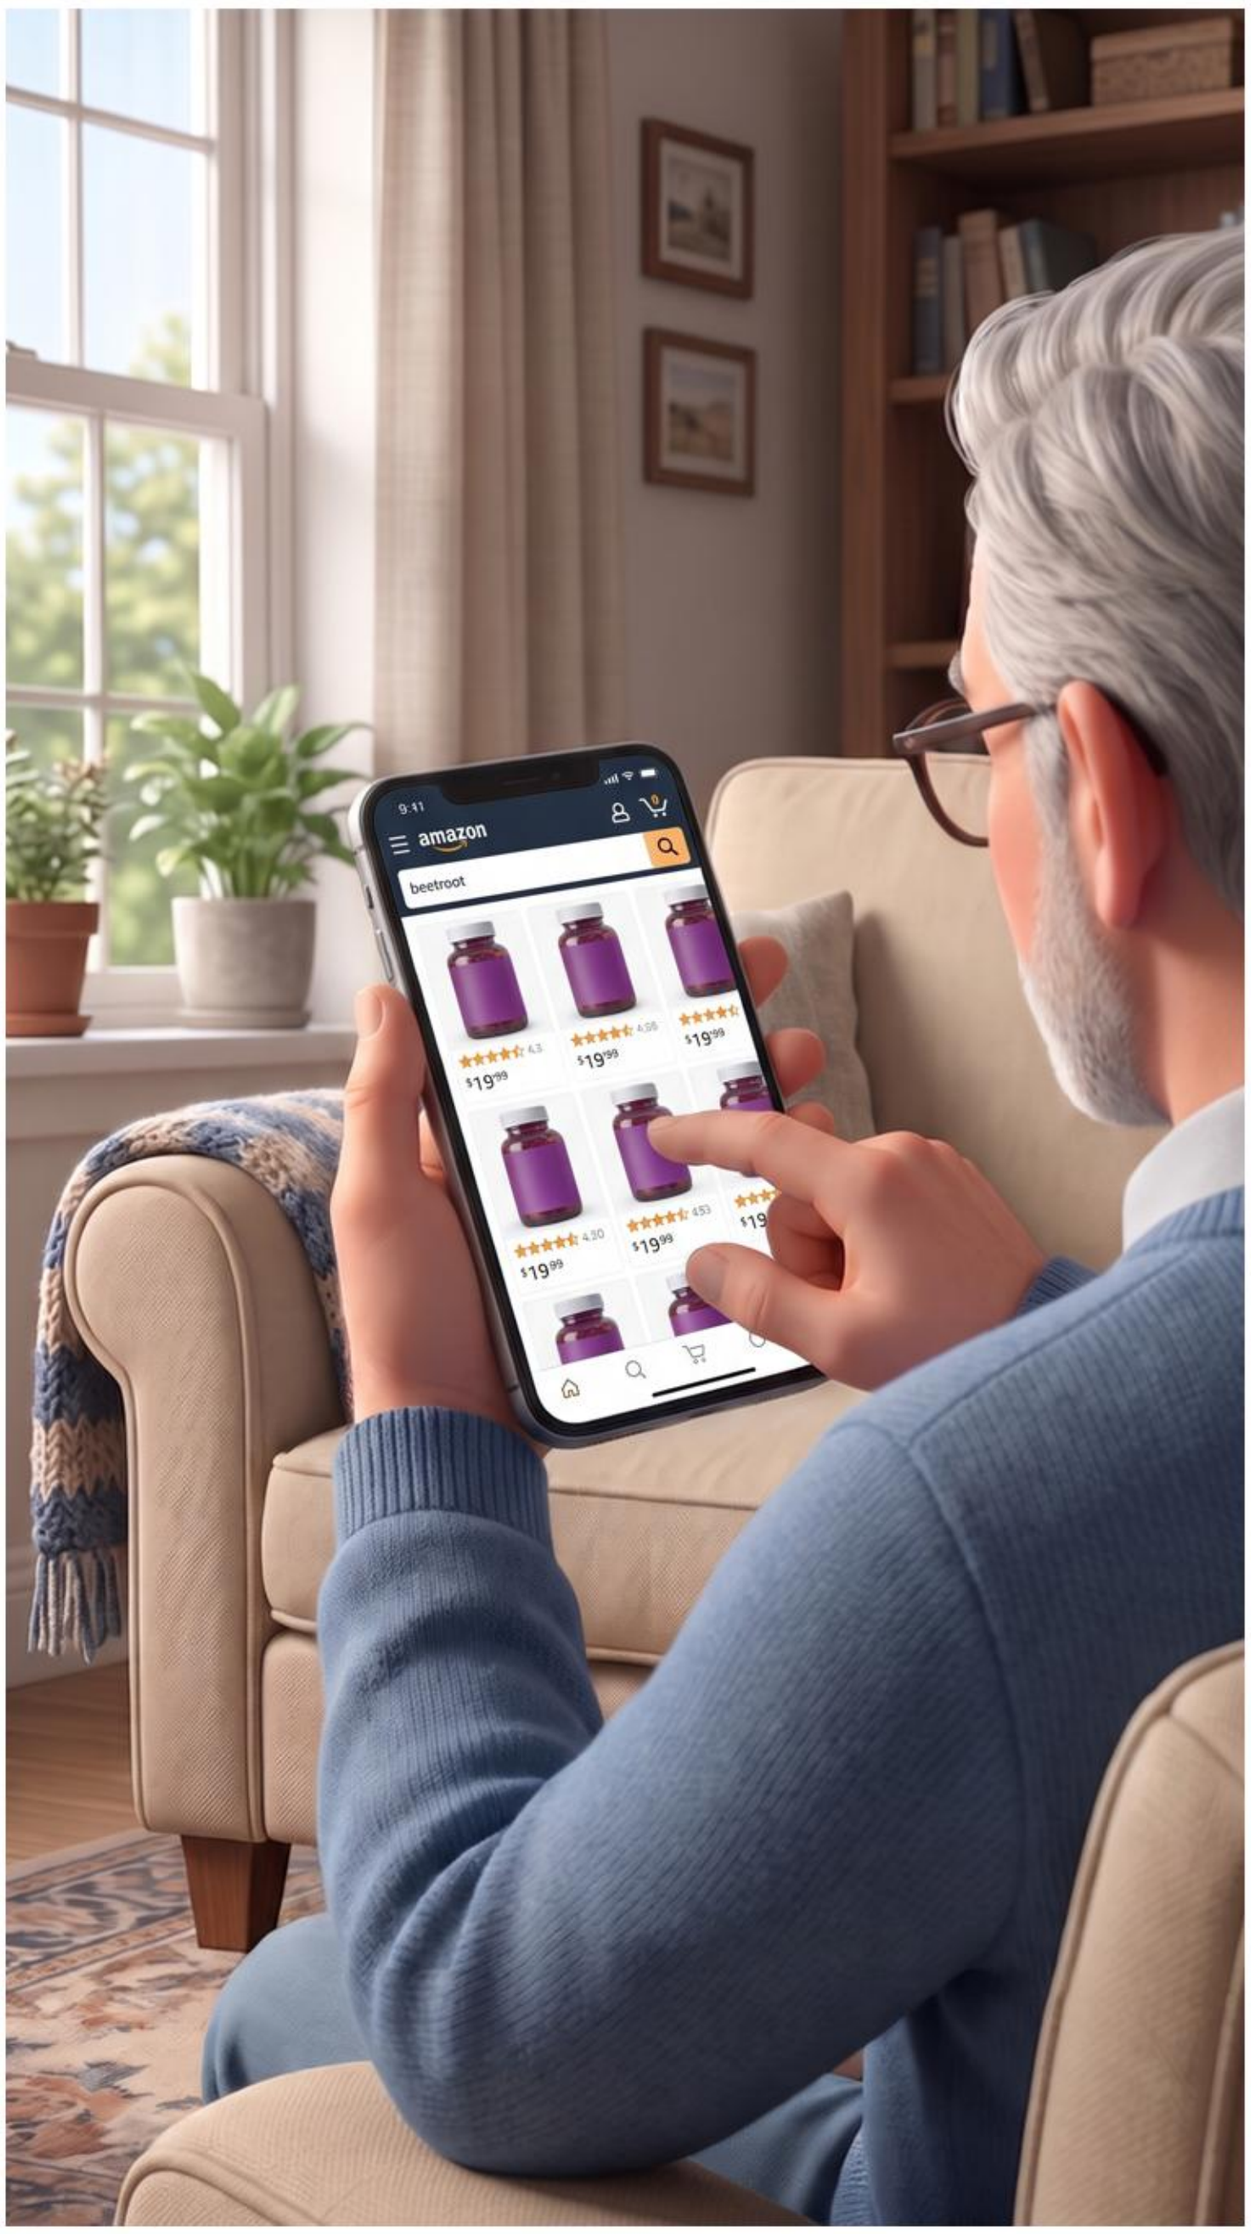

CLIP 20 - N4 - NITRO+ - image validée

VO (brief) : Most nitric oxide pills you see on Amazon are beetroot powder.

VISUEL (brief) : Over the man's shoulder in his living room. He sits on the couch in a blue sweater, scrolling Amazon on his phone. The screen shows rows of generic beetroot capsule bottles with plain purple labels, no brand names and no real logos.

En français : Par-dessus l'épaule, Amazon, bouteilles violettes.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

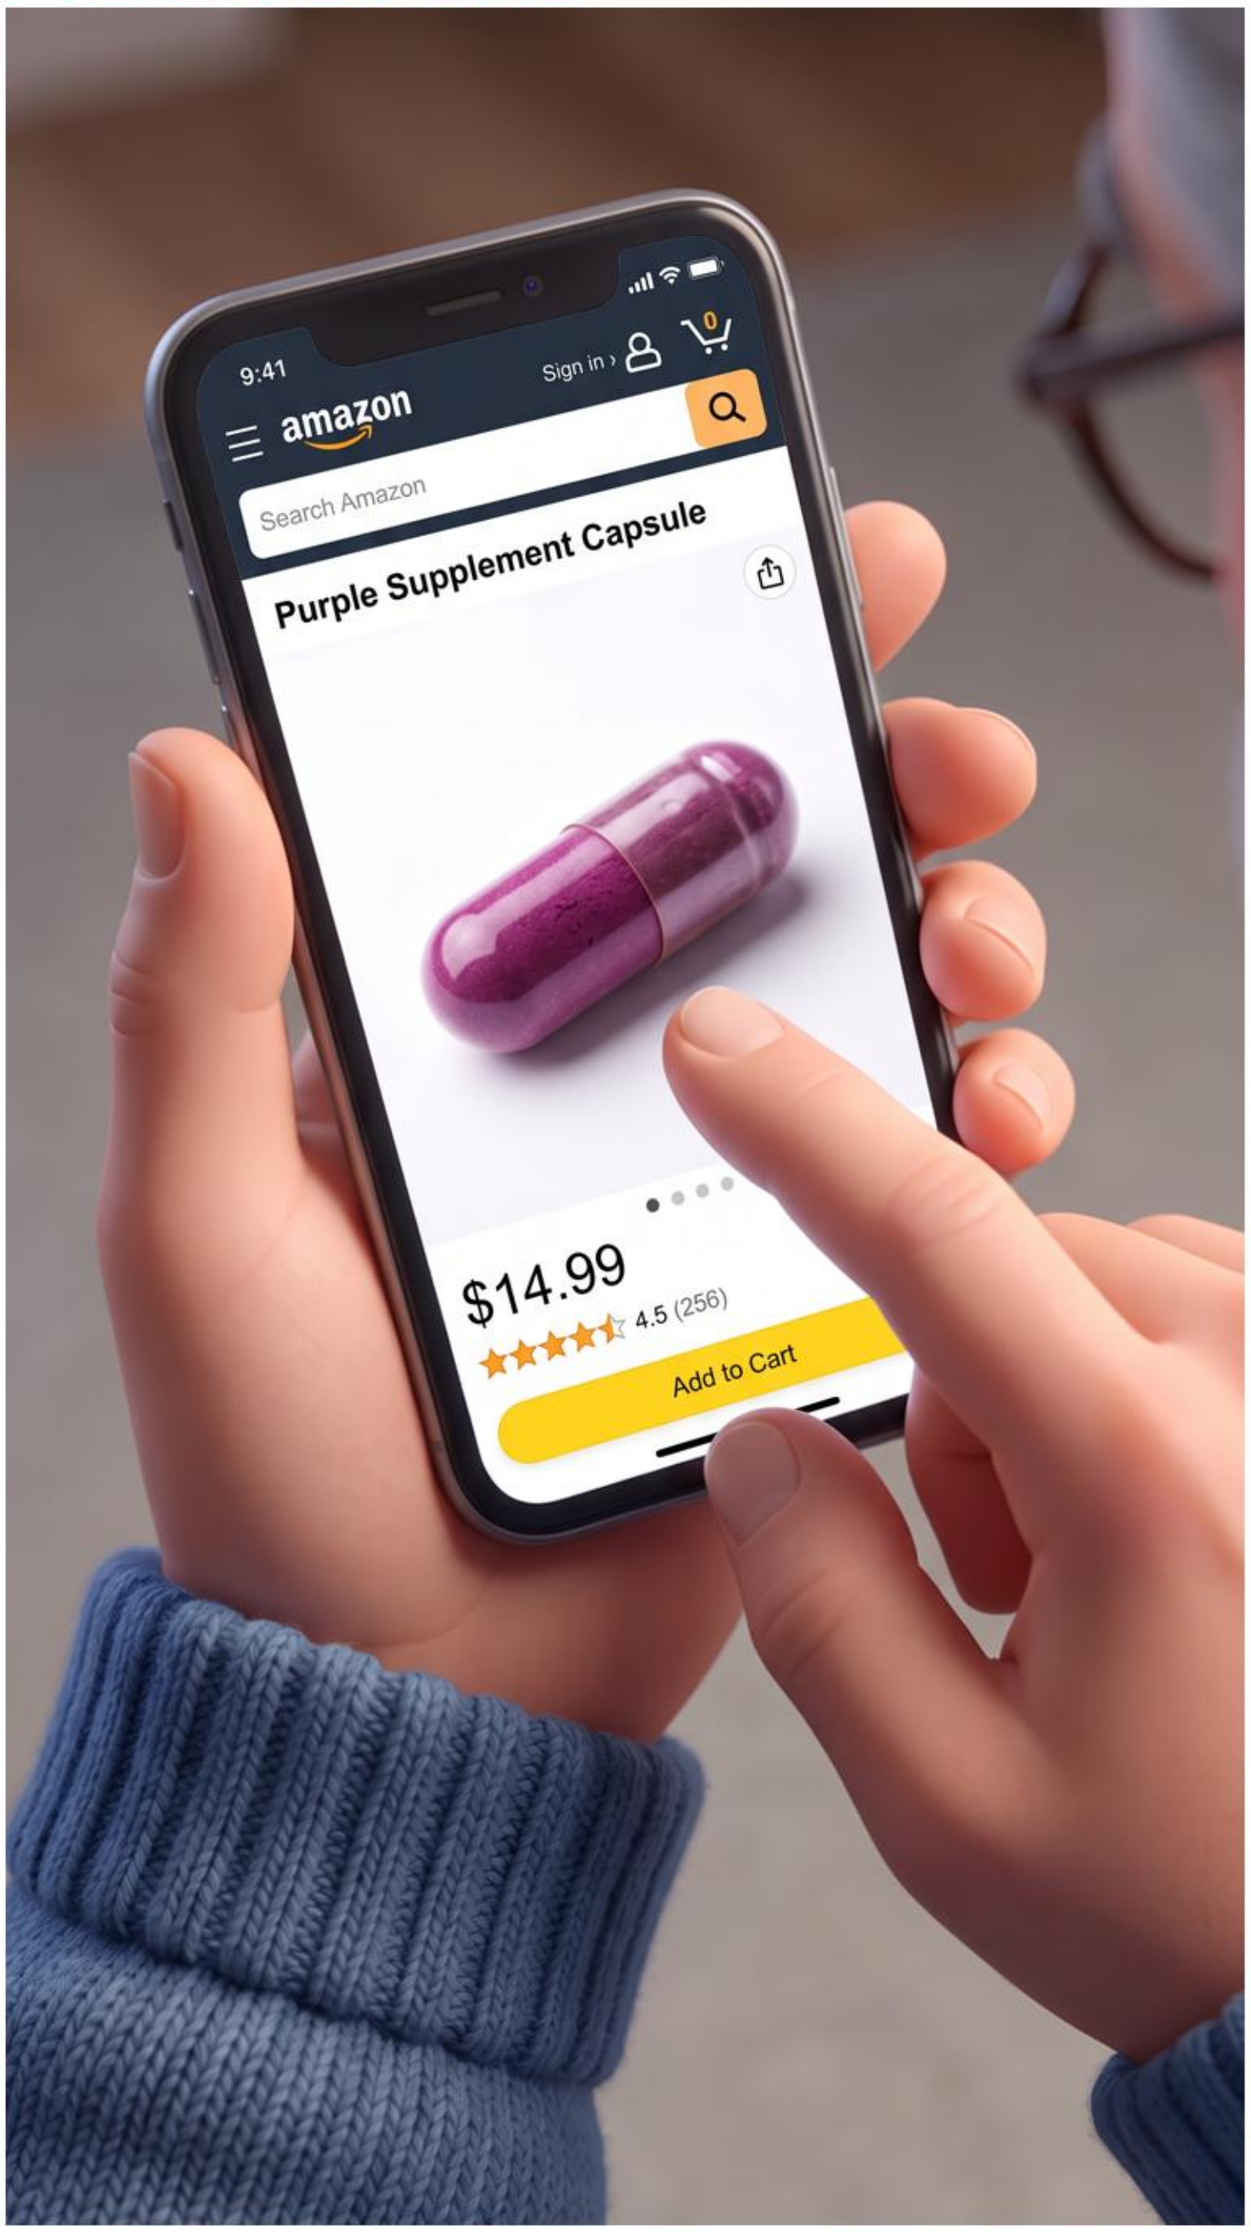

CLIP 21 - N5 - NITRO+ - image validée

VO (brief) : Each capsule holds a sliver of the dose that was actually studied.

VISUEL (brief) : Close-up of the phone screen. His thumb taps one beetroot product, and the photo zooms in on a single small purple capsule.

En français : Gros plan sur la gélule violette.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

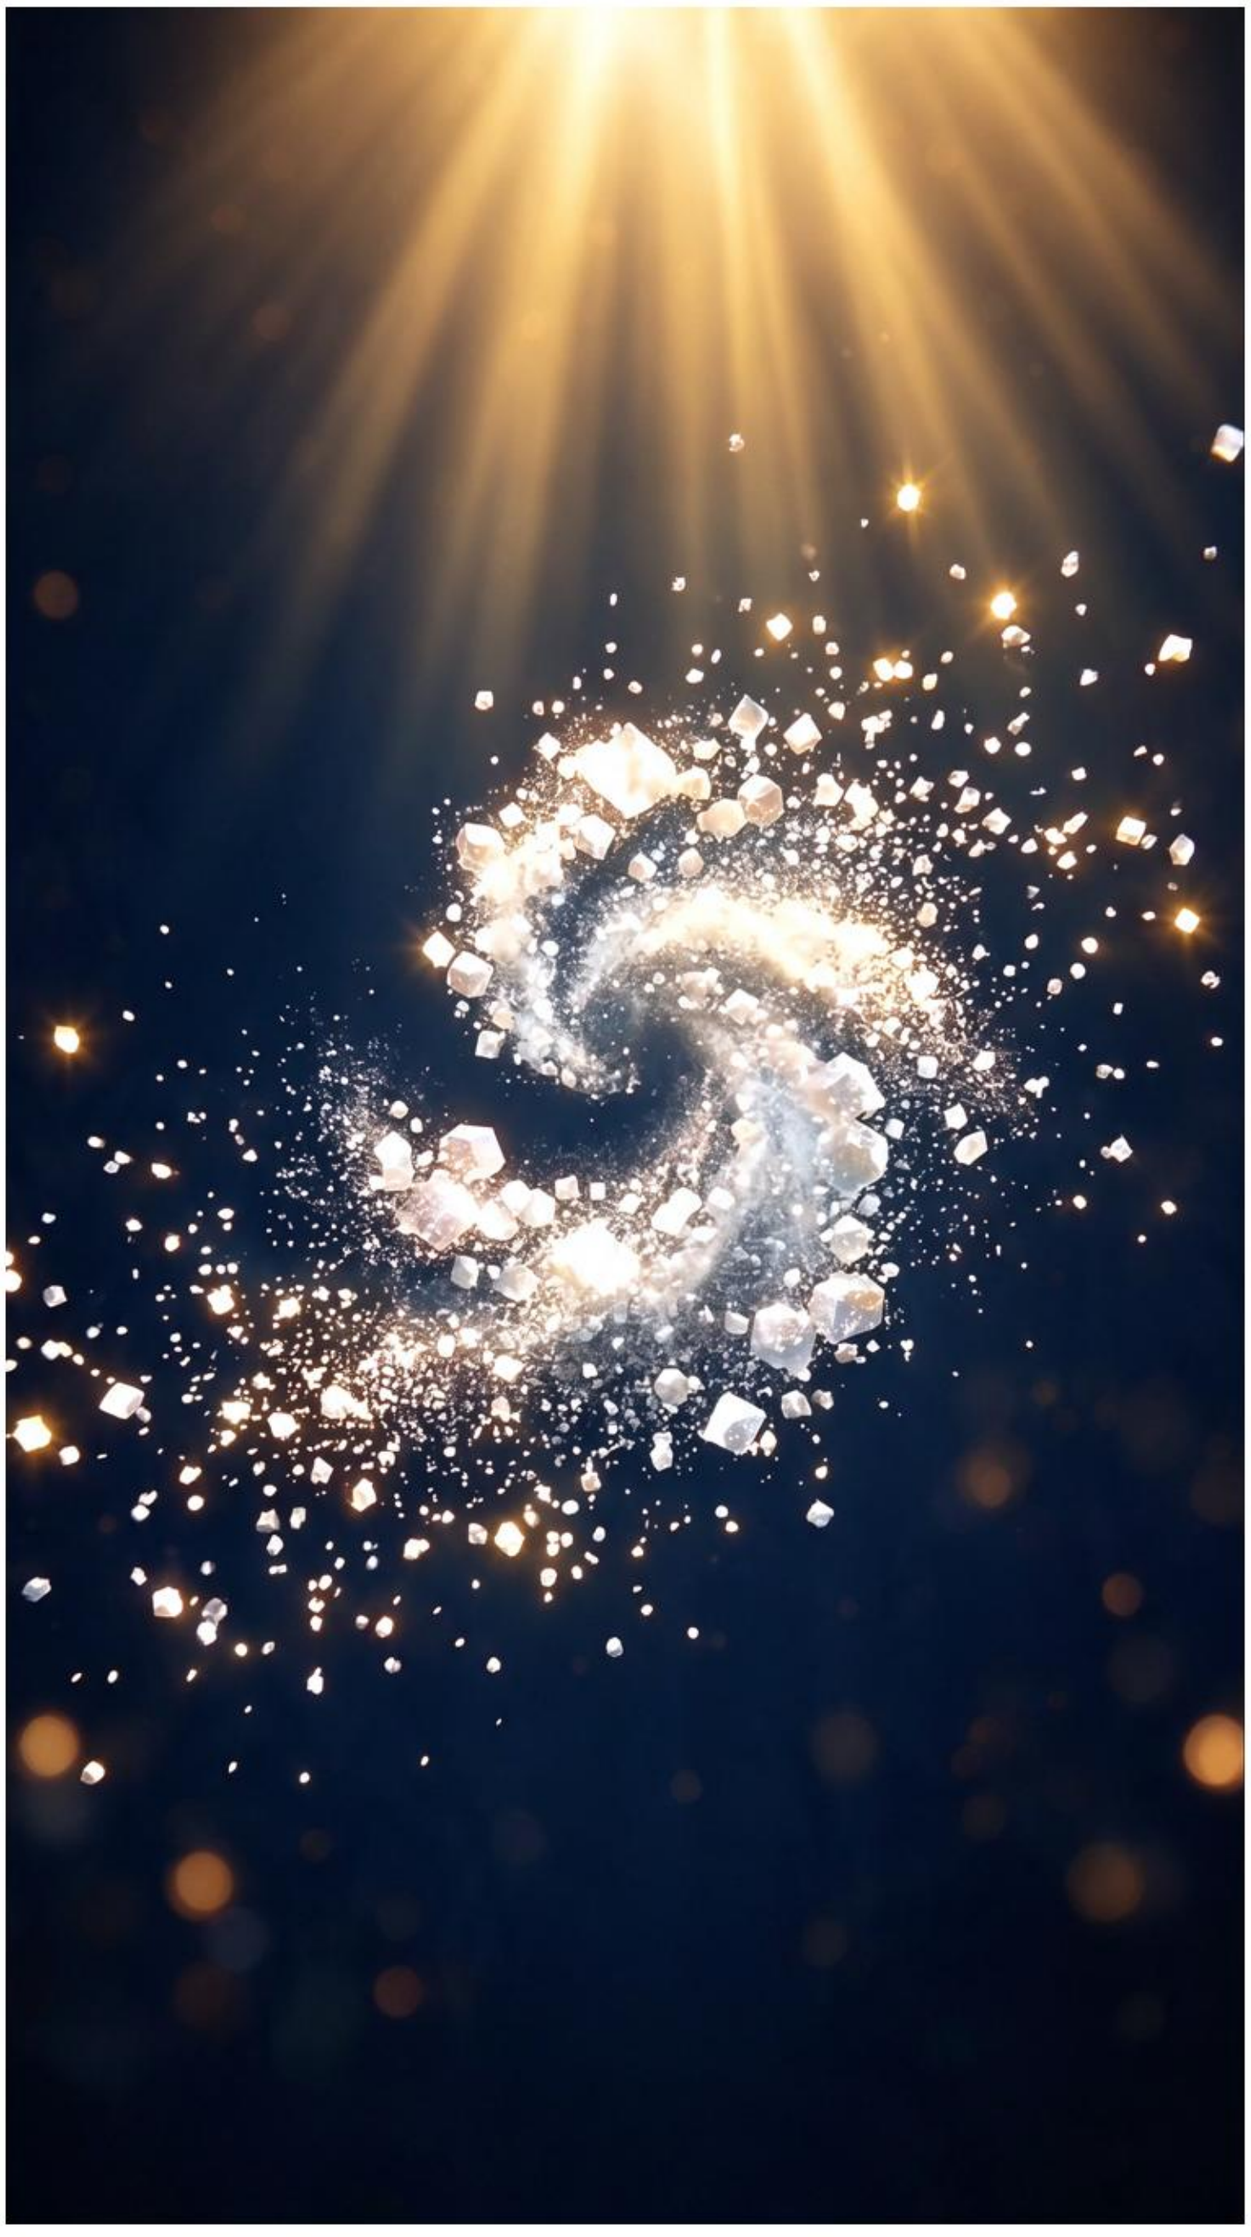

CLIP 22 - V1 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : You need L-citrulline. The raw material your body actually turns into nitric oxide.

VISUEL (brief) : A glowing swirl of sparkling white crystal powder with golden light rays shining through it, like the sea moss shot in the reference. The crystals fly toward the camera and burst into bright blue sparks. On-screen text appears: L-CITRULLINE, then NITRIC OXIDE.

En français : Tourbillon de cristaux. Textes au montage.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 23 - V2 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : Plus the right supporting ingredients.

VISUEL (brief) : Inside a blood vessel with red blood cells floating around. Three ingredient characters stand side by side and join hands: the white crystal L-citrulline figure, the brown pine bark character and the purple saffron flower. A glowing gold ring forms around the three of them.

En français : Les 3 ingrédients se tiennent la main.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 24 - V3 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : Pine bark to help your vessels make their own nitric oxide again. Not the way he's been forcing them.

VISUEL (brief) : Inside a blood vessel. The brown pine bark character presses both palms against the pink vessel wall. Blue glowing light spreads from its hands, and the wall smoothly widens on its own. Behind it, slightly blurred, is a torn and cracked section of wall, the damage Amlodipine did earlier.

En français : Écorce sur la paroi, lumière bleue.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 25 - V4 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : Pine bark also protects it, so it lasts long enough to reach your hands and feet.

VISUEL (brief) : The man sits on the edge of his bed with his hands resting on his knees. The camera is framed so you only see his fingers and his toes, not his ankles. The pine bark character stands beside him holding up a small shield, while blue glowing ribbons of light flow past it down his arms and legs. His fingers and toes turn from pale and bluish to warm and pink.

En français : Doigts et orteils passent de pâles à roses.

PREMIERE IMAGE

DERNIERE IMAGE

CLIP 26 - V5 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : Saffron for the mood and the drive he never touched.

VISUEL (brief) : A sunny kitchen in the morning. The man stands at the counter, smiling big, sleeves rolled up, looking full of energy. The purple saffron flower character sits on the counter, swirling gold ribbons of light around his head and chest.

En français : Homme debout au comptoir, safran assis dessus.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 27 - L1 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : All 3 working on the system your blood pressure actually depends on.

VISUEL (brief) : A realistic see-through 3D view of a man's body showing the heart and main arteries, like the kidney anatomy shot in the reference. A bright blue glow pulses from the heart out through the arteries all the way to the hands and feet.

En français : Corps transparent, cœur et artères en bleu.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 28 - L2 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : 3 ingredients. Every dose on the label. 2 capsules a day.

VISUEL (brief) : Warm gold blurry background. White crystal powder, curls of brown pine bark and red saffron threads float in a circle. They spin faster, collapse into a bright flash of light, and 2 capsules appear floating in the center.

En français : Ingrédients en cercle, puis 2 gélules.

PREMIERE IMAGE

DERNIERE IMAGE

CLIP 29 - L3 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : Made in the USA. Third-party tested.

VISUEL (brief) : The red Nitro+ bottle character stands in front of a clean cream-colored backdrop with soft red light behind her. She gives a thumbs up.

En français : Fond crème, pouce levé.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 30 - L4 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : 90-day money-back guarantee.

VISUEL (brief) : Same backdrop. The Nitro+ bottle puts her hands on her hips and nods confidently.

En français : Mains sur les hanches.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 31 - L5 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : If you don't feel the difference, every penny back.

VISUEL (brief) : Same backdrop. On “If you don't,” she gives a slow, knowing look. On “every penny back,” she breaks into a big smile.

En français : Regard entendu, puis grand sourire.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 32 - L6 - VO - image validée

VO (brief) : No prescription needed.

En français : Il salue.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 33 - C1 - CTA - image validée

VO (brief) : Don't listen to him. Stay with me. (brief : « her » → corrigé « him » par Saad)

VISUEL (brief) : Inside a blood vessel with red blood cells floating past. Amlodipine now looks beaten: He slumps on the floor with his white cap cracked. His label is ripped so it only reads “AMLO...”. A hospital IV drip pole stands next to him. He reaches one shaky gloved hand toward the camera, begging, his voice weak.

En français : Amlodipine brisé, supplie, AMLO...

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 34 - C2 - CTA - image validée

VO (brief) : Your ankles were going to swell anyway.

VISUEL (brief) : Same shot. Amlodipine gives a weak, desperate shrug and looks away.

En français : Haussement d'épaules, il détourne le regard.

PREMIERE IMAGE (image unique)

CLIP 35 - C3 - CTA - image validée

VO (brief) : Tap the link below. Get him out of your life.

VISUEL (brief) : The red Nitro+ bottle character stands in front of a glowing golden sunburst background with her arms open wide, smiling at the camera. Small text at the bottom of the screen: “Never stop or change a prescription without talking to your doctor.”

En français : Sunburst doré, bras ouverts. Mention légale au montage.
